

The poor goose

Off they went.

The horse tore across the moor, jumping the thorn bushes and the tree trunks.

He looked to the left and he looked to the right.

"I can't see the sheepdog," he snorted scornfully, "and I can't see that silly goose! I must be winning."

The sheepdog hitched a lift on Farmer Popcorn's Carr. He sat on a sack of corn, grinning to himself as the cart bumped along the track.

He looked to the left and he looked to the right.

"I can't see the horse," he barked importantly, "and I can't see that silly goose. I must be winning!"
